Dear Mr. Suckoo

Re: Compliance of Recommendations made by the Office of the Complaints Commissioner for OMI “Danger, Construction at Work”.

Pursuant to the the Office of the Complaints Commissioner’s (OCC) Own Motion Investigation in regards to the above subject, the OCC made a total of 13 recommendations in which the OCC and your Ministry met a few times to provide direction and monitor compliance in the matter.

In reference to your correspondence dated the 15th April 2016, addressing recommendations 1, 5, 8 and 9, the OCC has reviewed the process and has determined that your Ministry has complied or sustainably complied with these recommendations in addition to the previously complied recommendations 2, 3, 4, 6, and 7.

We will now close this file as of today's date.

Sincerely,

Mrs. Bridgette von Gerhardt
Acting Complaints Commissioner.

The Complaints Commissioner Law (2006 R) at section 14 (2) notes that investigations are conducted in private, and the procedure is determined by the Commissioner. Investigative documents are not to be made public. All persons are reminded of the contempt of court provisions in sections 17 and 22 of the Law.
